

palm beach house
palm beach nsw

This house in Palm Beach is the culmination of ten years of building in coastal locations. An extraordinary site lends itself to a spectacular architectural response. Great cantilevering roofs overhang large glazed openings whilst a protective courtyard offering respite from the ocean. The house features copper and sandstone cladding and a highly finished interior and landscape design.

